Chicago, May 7.-Again were the Giants defeated by the Chicago team this afternoon. The visitors played a good fielding game, but their batting was When the ninth inning began not one of the visitors had been able to secure a hit off Hutchison. O'Rourke then saved the Giants' reputation as batters by scratching out a single. For four innings the New-Yorks hustled about in a lively manner and the 3,200 persons present expected to witness an interesting In the fifth inning King seemed to tire and Anson's "colts" were not slow to take advantage of it either; but it was in the sixth inning that they made the "Sliver King? wish himself somewhere else rather then pitching against the sluggers from the Windy City. They hit the ball in all directions over the grounds, and the New-Yorks' outflelders did some lively

FIRST MEETING OF THE SEASON.

THE HEMPSTEAD FARM ASSOCIATION'S PRO-GRAMME-SOME OF THOSE PRESENT.

The first meeting this season of the Hempstead Farm Racing Association took place at Meadowbrook, L. L., yesterday afternoon, but the sport attracted only a fair attendance. An attractive programme had been arranged and it was enjoyed chiefly by the local Meadowbrook hunting set. A special train was run from Long Island City to the farm. A stiff gale from the west swept over the broad plains about the grounds, and heavy coats and wraps were not found uncomfortable. The thimble-rigging swindler who swarmed to the grounds in such numbers a year ago, and who succeeded in swindling several persons out of small amounts of money, were no. present yes torday. There were several bookmakers on the ground but they did not do a very thriving business.

The races began promptly at 2 o'clock. There were five entries for the first, which was called an intro ductory scramble, 300 yards straight away on the flat. The race was won without much trouble by The Crow, belonging to George Whitlock and ridden by Foxhall Keene, whose horse, Buckshot, was scrutched. Chief-tain, ridden by Arthur Hunter, another of the gentleman jockeys, came in second, and La Trona, ridden by James L. Kernochan, won third place. Elloxi, jr., slipped his saddle and threw his rider, who was H. R. Vfngut. No official time was given in this or any of the subsequent races.

The second race, the handleap sweepstakes, halfmile on the flat, was won by Champa, ridden by Mr. Kernochan. The only other entry in this contest was Trump, who was piloted along by Mr. Hunter.

The handicap sweepstakes, $10 each, p. p., added to a cup; the second to receive 50 per cent of the scakes; five-cighths of a mile, on the flat, was the third race. There were three entries: Pocahontas, ridden by her owner, Arthur White; Josephine H., ridden by Patrick Meaney, and Elloxi, Jr., ridden by Mr. Vingut. The race was easily won by Pocahontas Biloxi, jr., was second and Josephine H. came in third. The fourth race, another handicap sweepstakes, three quarters of a mile on the flat, was also won by Arthur White with Pocahontas. Planerold, ridden by Good, was second in the race, and Carteret, ridden by the owner, W. Hayes, came in third.

The fifth race, also handicap sweepstakes, one-quarter of a mile on the flat, was won by Crow, mounted by president, Edward T. Lovett, of North Tarrytown; third Foxhall Keene, with Champa, ridden by Mr. Kernochan as a close second. The other entries in this race were: Buckshot, ridden by Mr. Haight; La Trona ridden by Mr. Fream, and Molly O., ridden by E. J. Hogan, the owner. Perhaps the most interesting contest of the day vas the four mile hunters' steeplechase, known as the Meadow Brook Hunt Steeplechase, for gentlemen riders. Shipmate was ridden by Mr. Baldwin, Apollo by its owner, Kismet by Mr. Haight, The Syren by its owner, H. S. Page; Sherrad by W. Hays, and Meadow Lark by its owner, Mr. Kernochan. Mr. Page and Mr. Kernochan went down in this race, but were not injured. Mr. Halght, with Kismet, won. Mr. Page, with The Syren, came in There were but two entries for the seventh race, he dicap sweepstakes, one mile and a quarter, over Roulette, ridden by Hewitt, defeated Josephine H., ridden by Patrick Meaney.

In the "Bull Dawg" four-mile steeplechase there were four contestants, The Heeler, ridden by H. S. were four contestants, The Heeler, Fidden by H. S., Page; Lorna Doone, by R. D. Baldwin, who were thrown shortly after the first turn; Brunette, by W. Hayes, and Mr. Carrol's Dixle, by Archer. Brunette was successful.

An extra race, $20 a side, closed the sport. The contestants were Molly O. and Bell Boy. The former horse, mounted by its owner, Mr. Hogan, was the winner.
